This image shows a full page of blank graph paper. The grid consists of small, equal-sized squares formed by thin, light gray lines. There are 20 columns and 20 rows of squares, creating a total of 400 square units. The margins are consistent on all sides, and there are no markings, text, or drawings on the paper.

A full-page sheet of white graph paper featuring a light gray grid. The grid consists of small squares, approximately 10 units wide by 10 units high. A single horizontal line runs across the middle of the page, dividing it into two equal halves. This line serves as a baseline for plotting graphs or drawing figures.
