

How to use apartment rental search support

What is apartment rental search support?

It is a service that provides information on available private rental housing with the cooperation of a real estate group that has signed an agreement with the City.

This service provides information on available private rental housing in Setagaya City, not the property itself. The vacancy information may not be completely accurate when using this service.

Who can use this service

- Residents of Setagaya City, which includes persons who are foreign nationals (such as persons who hold residence cards), those who can speak Japanese, or persons who can accompany someone who can speak Japanese.

How to use this service

- ① Please contact the Housing Support Center at Setagaya Trust & Community Design to make a reservation for a consultation. (Consultations will be conducted in Japanese.)
- ② Please show up at the consultation venue at the arranged time and date. Please make sure to bring your residence card or other ID for confirmation at that time.
