

FY 2023 Municipal Resident's tax and Metropolitan Resident's tax (Resident's tax)

The tax notice and guidance of tax determination

We thank you for your constant understanding and support for the ward administration. Resident's tax of FY 2023 has been determined, hereby we send you the tax notice.

Please read through this guidance and the back side of the tax notice in order to view the tax notice.

1. Overview of Resident's tax

Taxpayer in Setagaya City

Resident's tax of FY 2023 would be taxed to those who live in Setagaya City as of January 1st, 2023, and the taxation is based on their income of 2022 (January 2022 to December 2022).

Those who moved out Setagaya City after January 2nd, but had their address in Setagaya City as of January 1st, 2023, would be required to pay Resident's tax to Setagaya City, but would not to be required to pay Resident's tax to the Municipal Office of where they moved in.

About Resident's tax

Resident's tax includes Municipal Resident's tax(ward tax) and Metropolitan Resident's tax(prefectural tax) and both tax needs to be paid to the Municipal Office. Since Tokyo 23 wards are regarded as "Special wards", it is called Municipal Resident's tax instead of ward tax.

Per Capita Levy and Per Income Levy

There are Per Capita Levy and Per Income Levy in Municipal Resident's tax and Metropolitan Resident's tax, and the added up amount of these two is your Annual Tax Amount.

- Per Capita Levy...The amount is fixed if your Total Income Amount exceeded the designated amount.
Municipal Resident's tax:¥3,500 Metropolitan Resident's tax:¥1,500 Total:¥5,000
- Per Income Levy...The amount is calculated according to the income of FY2023.

Please refer to the symbol ★ on the left top of page 2 for information on the total income.

2. Payment

[(1)If Tax Payment Slip is enclosed]

Please pay your tax at a financial institution, etc. with Tax Payment Slip before due date.

A delinquency charge may be applied after the due date. Be sure to pay your tax before due date.

If you received Tax Payment Slip both for entire period 【for lump-sum payment only】 (Annual Tax Amount / 1 slip) and for quarter year (1st period to 4th period / 4 slips), For the payment, please choose whichever is more convenient for you, the one-time full payment slip or the payment in four-time installments slip.

Please avoid overlap payment of two different methods of payment.

【Payment due date】 ●Tax Payment Slip for entire period: June 30

- Tax Payment Slip for quarter year: Last days of June, August, October and January of the following year(When the payment due date falls on a Saturday, Sunday or holiday, the next business day becomes the due date.)

Tax Payment Slip for entire period is not enclosed if 1 – 3 Tax Payment Slips for quarter year are enclosed.

Please pay your tax with Tax Payment Slip for quarter year.

Even if you receive a bank transfer request form, the tax payment successor cannot make a bank transfer. please note.

[(2)If Tax Payment Slip is not enclosed]

Tax Payment Slip will not be enclosed if you pay tax by bank transfer. Please ensure that you maintain a sufficient balance in your account, since Resident's tax is automatically drawn from your registered financial institution account.

Tax Payment Slip will not be enclosed if you are receiving public pension and Automatic Collection from Public Pension remains active, as Resident's tax is automatically deducted from your public pension.

Applied to those who have any amount printed except for ¥0 on all the section of column 18 and 19 on page 3.

4.FAQ

[(1) The Tax Payment Slip was delivered even though Resident's tax was deducted (Specially Collected) from wage]

Those who gained income other than the main employment income during the previous year (e.g., salary from secondary source, dividend income, real estate income, and/or capital gain), calculate "□ Annual Tax Amount" ( ) by summing the main and other incomes, then subtract the Special Collection Amount ( ) calculated from main employment income alone. The amount of Resident's Tax left ( — ) will be stated as the individual payment ( or ) in the Tax Notice mailed. Upon request, the individual payment amount of Resident's Tax can be added on to the Special Collection Amount.

Contact the Taxation Division before the due date for details.

[(2) How to pay tax after retirement]

- Resident's tax for FY2023 start being deducted through special collection from your salary for June 2023; however, doing so is not possible if you resigned in May 2023 or earlier. You must therefore pay an appropriate tax amount personally.

- If you are employed again after your retirement, you can switch the payment method from individual payment to special collection for unpaid portions through procedures taken by your new employer.

For the detail for procedure, please contact the Taxation Division or Human Resource / Accounting department of your new employer.

[(3) If Tax Payment Slip was delivered after you have moved out of Setagaya city]

Those who moved out Setagaya City after January 2nd, but had their address in Setagaya City as of January 1st, 2023, would be required to pay Resident's tax to Setagaya City, but would not to be required to pay Resident's tax to the Municipal Office of where they moved in.

[(4) Why is your Resident's Tax balanced from your Public Pension]

For the description of Special Collection from Public Pension, please refer to Paragraph 5.

[(5) Information about Deduction for Donation]

If you have made donations such as the Hometown Tax and other service, you qualify for Tax Deduction for Donation. The amount of Tax Deduction for Donation may vary depending on the recipient of the donation, please refer to the section , Amount of Tax Deduction for Donation in Tax Deduction.

As for "Hometown Tax (donation towards prefecture and/or municipality)", details are as follows:

★After June 2019, only local governments designated by the Minister are eligible for deduction.

★The residents of Setagaya city can also participate in the "Hometown Tax" for Setagaya city. Please refer to the city's website from "Information on the Hometown Tax Scheme for the City".

If you have applied for Hometown Tax One-stop Exception Scheme

If the amount of your donation is within the deduction limit, the amount of Tax Deduction for Donation applied to Municipal Resident's tax and Metropolitan Resident's tax will be basically the amount of donation – ¥2,000.

If you have filed for Income Tax Return

If the amount of your donation is within the deduction limit, the amount deducted from the income tax in addition to the amount of tax deduction for donation applied to Municipal Resident's tax and Metropolitan Resident's tax will be basically equal to the amount of donation – ¥2,000. If you have filed for Income Tax Return, but you failed to fill out the section of Donation Deduction (see figure below) in the Items Related to Resident's Tax in Form B, you will not be able to receive the deduction for Resident's Tax. If you have filed for Tax Deduction for Donation and did not see the deduction in the Resident's Tax, please contact the Taxation Department.

[If you have filed a tax return]

Tax return contains the section titled "Items Regarding Spouses and Relatives" and "Items Regarding Resident's tax · Business Tax" (Figures 1 and 2 below). Failure to fill out this entry may result in relevant clause below not reflected in Resident's tax calculations, even if you:

- are entitled to a deduction for charitable contributions
- have a spouse in the Taxpayer's Household.
- have a dependent under 16 years old
- are entitled to a deduction for transfer income from stocks etc. or dividends
- want to choose a collection method of Resident's tax, etc.

Please contact Taxation Division if you fail to fill in necessary section.
